PARIS, Nov. 7.

In the recent engagement near Monte Rotondo the Papal troops were badly beaten by the troops of the French troops, upon the side of Italy.

LONDON, Nov. 7.

Dublin dates: Mail Bye Command French soldiers, under command of General Dumont, landing in the Italian ports which first reached Rome, for the assistance of the Papal forces fighting their last battle with the insurgents, and the finishing arrival of those detachments to reinforce the side of battle, and extend the district of Garibaldi.

FLORENCE, Nov. 7.—Evening.

From an account of the last engagement only Rome, on Sunday, Garibaldi occupied his position 15,000 men. At one time during the day the Papal troops, at Mentana, and Garibaldi, was coming ground, when the French came up and turned his victory into a defeat. It is now reported that the wounded number 1,500 in killed and wounded, and 2,000 prisoners.

REMOTE RIOTS THROUGHOUT ITALY.

There have been serious riots incited by the Party of Action in different parts of Italy, and particularly at Milan, where it was found necessary to call out the troops to quell the disturbance. Many rioters were killed and wounded, as more troops to Milan and Florence.

PARIS, Nov. 7.

The Monitor to-day says the embarkation of soldiers at Toulon has commenced, and 4,000 more troops will leave that port for Italy.

LONDON, Nov. 7.

A London Times prediction.

The Times to-day predicts that should Napoleon fill it bringing about a general conference of Europe, which would be followed by a crisis, which he will abandon the defense of the temporal power of the Pope, and leave Italy free to decide upon the question of the future.

The Times also says that the Emperor of France is now convinced that the Roman question is not a question of French interest, and that he will not make a desperate effort to maintain it.

Turkey.

THE SUPPOSED APPROACH OF A WAR WITH RUSSIA.

PARIS, Nov. 7.—Evening.

It is reported on good authority that the Porte is making unusual military preparations. It is stated that 5,000 needle guns were recently purchased in New York, and previous to Saturday over 20,000 men were under arms. Mr. Wood did not leave Constantinople, but will remain there.

Spain.

The people of Peoria County, Ill., on the occasion of a county election, voted that the Chicago & Rock Island Railroad Company do build the road to said county by the 1st of January, 1869, or forfeit the charter granted to said company by the Legislature.

Great Britain.

SERIOUS RIOTS IN DEVONSHIRE.

LONDON, Nov. 7.

The disturbances caused by the want of employment and scarcity of food continue in Devonshire. Riots are reported at Torquay, Exmouth and Dawlish, and the mayor of Exeter has issued a proclamation forbidding the offering of the authorities the troubles at Exeter were suppressed, and the town is now quiet. Many of the rioters are under arrest.

A REVIVAL.

An inquiry into Protestant Church establishment in Ireland has been appointed, with Earl of Devon at the head.

THE ALABAMA CLAIMS.

The Times has an editorial on the Alabama claims, in which it says that the Government has not yet communicated to the public the views put forward by Mr. Adams.

The Irish-gardener O'Donnell, who was shot by an unknown assassin, died to-day from his injuries.

THE PAPIAN TROUBLE AT MANCHESTER.

MANCHESTER, Nov. 7.—Evening.

At the session of the Court of Queen's Bench to-day, the counsel for the crown abandoned the count of murder in the five remaining indictments, and all the prisoners now entered will be prosecuted upon the charge of manslaughter.

The trial of the lawyers is now in progress. A large crowd assembled around the court house.
